What's On for the Jubilee

Published Thursday 26 May 2022 at 14:14

A Jubilee beacon will be lit at Darwen Tower to mark the Queen's 70-year reign on the evening of Thursday, June 2nd.

The beacon is one of thousands being lit in the UK and the Commonwealth and forms part of the official programme announced by Buckingham Palace for the Jubilee Weekend.

As part of the event, Jubilee Tower – which has undergone vital restoration works – will also be lit in red, white and blue.

HELLO EVERYONE, Open gardens visit is on Sunday 3rd July starting at 1pm in the village hall car park with car share options and finishing up at Sue and Alan Robins for afternoon tea in their wonderful garden.

Please look out for an email with the final details later in June.

If any member will be able to open their garden on the day it will be so nice to let us share. Let me know as it will be a great pleasure to include you.

We ask each visitor to bake or buy a cake or pastry to take to Sue and Alan's. Drinks etc will be provided in the most amazing setting you could wish for.

Have a wonderful Jubilee weekend and hope to see you all on 3rd July.

Warmest wishes,

Thank you, best wishes. Joan.

BOOK CLUB....

This month's book was 'The Promise' by Damon Galgut. Published in 2021, and winner of the Booker Prize for that year, it tells the story of a white South African family, set against a backdrop of a period of intense change for their country and the impact on several generations of their family.

The book explores some huge topics such as nationalism and colonialism, against the backdrop of a single family's story. The dismantling of apartheid and the seismic changes in South Africa are explored through the lens of their impact on the Swart family over four decades.

The book prompted a really interesting and involved discussion. Many people didn't 'like' the book but still scored it highly. The characters were universally disliked, but the techniques employed by the author, such as the unidentified narrator and the spurning of traditional outcomes and neat endings, were admired and enjoyed. Even members who found the book annoying/irritating were still thinking about the book after finishing it.

The author has an unusual style which some members just couldn't get on with, and as a result a few people didn't finish it. This maybe skewed the scores, as only those who finished the book scored it.

The scores were all 7's and 8's, with the average coming out at just under 8.

Next month's book is 'Stanley - The Impossible Life of Africa's Greatest Explorer' by Tim Jeal; and the next meeting is Tuesday 14th June.

New members welcome please contact Judith Finney on 07969 633997

W.I.....

At our May meeting Judith Finney talked about mental health and thanked us for supporting the coffee morning she organised in aid of Lancashire MIND.

We enjoyed an evening of Mindfulness and our members coloured with pencil crayons, completed their own craft projects and floral arrangements, shared jigsaws and had a good old natter.

Linda B. and Judith waited on us with a steady stream of drinks and delicious cakes. Talking is such thirsty work!

At 6pm on Wednesday 1st June to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee we meet at the village hall with family, friends & dogs to walk to the Royal for food and a small libation at 7pm.

We are collecting for Blackburn & Darwen food banks at our June WI meeting. Suggestions are tins of tuna, sweetcorn & tomatoes, dried pasta, shower gel, shampoo & deodorant.

Take care and enjoy your bank holiday,
Diane.

Special News from Tockholes United Reformed Church

On Sunday, 26th June TOCKHOLES CHAPEL will celebrate a Wondrous Anniversary – '360 years of life in our village!'

Worship on this special day will be led by Rev. Sarah Moore who I'm sure you will remember was our Minister at Tockholes until 2012, and a much-loved member of our community. Perhaps you would like to join us and meet-up with her again, to hear about her news of worship in the Lake District and Scotland. We will also be able to enjoy the singing of the choir from Darwen Central United Reformed Church who will be joining us on this occasion.

Tockholes Chapel has been a source of solace, welcoming villagers through it's doors for baptisms, weddings and funerals in times of hardship and plenty over the years. We would very much like your support on this special day (and for many more years to come!)

This invitation is open to all our Villagers and friends, old and new, please come along and enjoy this very special day with us. SUNDAY 26th JUNE, 2PM

Afternoon Tea will be served in Chapel after the Service
